

I'm living it harder to feel what it feels like to know - SOTM May 2011

The first time I'd even heard of Boy & Bear was when their cover of 'Fall at your feet' got to number 5 in this years (or 2010's) Triple J's hottest 100. I can't remember how I stumbled over this particular song which is called 'Feeding Line' but it could have been in the car, at the bike shop, at the dentist, at the supermarket..or maybe iTunes. It's been absolutely flogged on the radio but luckily I don't listen to the radio much so I'm not sick of it. Obviously I like it and that's why its got my SOTM!
