

When you walk there's a fire in your bones - SOTM May 2014

Now that I'm home all day or in the car I am SO over all of my music that I've reverted to listening to the radio. I am actually enjoying it and finding some new music. I've just been listening to triple j and came across this gem the other day.

The song is 'Poision Drum' and its by a band called Gang of Youths.

You can listen to it here..
